

Taking up and further developing the ideas of the working group "K.ö.R." from 2011, led by the Federal Ministry of the Interior, the Serbski Sejm demands the following

Programme for the democratic self-determination of the Sorbian/Wendish people

1. The Sorbian/Wendish people acquire collective legal personality through the creation of a public-law corporation.
2. The Sorbian/Wendish people shall organise their affairs in democratic self-determination and self-administration (personal autonomy) by means of the people's representation resulting from direct, free, equal and secret elections and the executive appointed by it.
3. The previous Foundation for the Sorbian People becomes part of the executive of the corporation as a financial administration.
4. The state shall provide the corporation with adequate financial resources for self-administration from the general tax revenue.
5. The Sorbian/Wendish languages have equal status to the German language in the Sorbian/Wendish settlement area and are accessible to the entire population.
6. The Sorbian/Wendish people are granted extensive rights of consultation, co-determination and veto in state decision-making processes.
7. The Sorbian/Wendish people shall be granted the right to take legal action in an appropriate manner.
8. The planning of the school network for the Sorbian/Wendish schools as well as the distribution of teachers for Sorbian/Wendish education shall be placed in the hands of the corporation.
9. The corporation becomes the public service provider of educational institutions at all levels, as well as charitable and social institutions. It shall operate its own school transport.
10. Sorbian/Wendish public radio and TV stations as well as online programmes will provide a comprehensive and modern media supply.
11. The details are regulated in a state treaty with the Federal Republic of Germany, the State of Brandenburg and the Free State of Saxony.
